

REC DIRECTOR BEING SOUGHT; SUMMER PLANS WILL CONTINUE

The Gettysburg Recreation association expects to have a new director to succeed Donald C. Joseph, whose resignation was accepted by the board of directors last week. "In plenty of time so that there will be no curtailment of the summer recreational program," members of the board said today.

Mrs. Sydney J. Poppay, chairman of the special committee appointed by Attorney Richard A. Brown, president of the board, to consider applicants for the position, said her committee would meet some time this week.

"There are qualified persons available," Mrs. Poppay said. "The problem is to obtain a recreation director who will fit in with our requirements."

Other members of the committee are Daniel J. Wolff and George D. March.

A recreation director may be employed by the board on a temporary basis first, in order that summer activities may not suffer, Mr. Brown said, and the present recreation program continued without interruption.

Whomever the board employs must have state certification if the recreation association is to obtain reimbursement from the state.

Care of the recreation park will be in the hands of another special committee, composed of William (Johnny) Knox, John D. Teeter and Mr. Wolff. Mr. Brown said, until a qualified director is obtained.

"Cowboys" And "Loiterers" Are Police Targets

Borough police will have their own spring "clean-up campaign," and it will start immediately, Burgess William G. Weaver announced today.

Two of the targets will be the loiterers who stand in doorways in the milder spring weather, and the "cowboys" and others who jam traffic in Lincoln Square.

Following receipt of complaints that "undesirables" loiter in doorways leading to stores, and more particularly in the evenings, in stairways leading to apartments, borough police have been directed, the burgess said, to see that this is broken up.

Residents of the apartments, according to complaints, sometimes have to "force their way" past these loiterers, the burgess said. In the case of women, the language sometimes heard isn't pure "King's English."

Officers have also been instructed, according to the burgess, to break up the practice some motorists have of making several "laps" around the center plot in the square, sometimes in pairs, calling back and forth to each other and sometimes driving abreast.

"These practices and others will have to stop now before they get worse," Weaver said.

Flash Fire In Los Angeles Hotel Takes 6 Lives Today

Los Angeles, March 25 (P)—Fire which flashed swiftly in a six-story Skid Row hotel killed at least six men.

Night Clerk Leland Whitehouse was credited with saving many lives. He ran through the corridors knocking on doors, then hurried back to his switchboard to warn others by telephone.

An estimated 150 were in the St. George hotel, at 115 East Third street, when the blaze broke out at 3 a.m. (Pacific Standard Time.) Police said 10 were hospitalized with burns or injuries.

Whitehouse, 57, described the disaster of the fire.

The first I knew of the fire was when someone called down from the fourth floor when he saw smoke.

I ran upstairs. I went down a back staircase to the fourth to the third floor. Then I saw the fire. It was coming from room 312 at the rear. The door was open.

One of the occupants of 312, identified by police as A. D. Bernhardt, fell or jumped to his death in an alley. The other occupant, Emil Monge, was in bed with critical burns. Until they could question him, fire department arson investigators said they had no idea where the blaze started. Whitehouse said the two men checked in about 1:30 a.m.

The hotel is just off Main street and caters chiefly to men transients. Of the dead beside Bernhardt, all suffocated.

The whine of sirens mingled with the screams of burned and calls for help as firemen and ambulances roared up at the first alarm. Division Chief H. M. Melvin put in a quick call for aerial ladder trucks as frightened faces appeared at upper windows of the 100-room brick structure.

One by one the big ladders swung to windows to take off the occupants. Others clambered down fire escapes and a few jumped into nets. Most of them were suffering from the intense heat and heavy smoke.

The blaze was quelled an hour after it started.

Complete Eight Classes.

The eighth class was organized last year and capped last fall by Mrs. Lewars. Each class received 35 hours of theoretical and 45 hours of practical training at the hospital.

Recruiting for the nurses aides started in January 1942 and the first class of six members, taught by Miss Alice Ford, was capped in May, 1942, by Mrs. E. S. Lewars, Mrs. Schafrazi said. By the end of 1945 seven classes had received instruction and 68 of the nurses aides had been capped.

Plans Campaign In Fall

Slaybaugh read a letter from Mrs. Lois Gentry, director of the Tennessee Workshop to which the 1,500 pounds of clothing gathered by the county's school youngsters was sent, stating, "The estimated value of the second hand clothing contributed by the children of Adams county for overseas relief was between $2,500 and $3,000. Please express to the children in your participating school centers in Adams county our sincere appreciation for their gifts to war-torn humanity."

The extra sum was added to the campaign quota in a special message received by the county chapter from E. Roland Harriman, national Red Cross chairman. His urgent appeal follows in part:

"The overwhelming disaster which has crushed dozens of communities has left in its wake a mounting death list, hundreds injured, thousands homeless and property losses that will run into millions."

Pennsylvania's loyalty oath was administered to members of the board and the four veterans' agriculture teachers by Justice of the Peace John H. Basehor.

SAYS SOCIALISM IS ROAD WITH NO RETURN FOR U. S.

"Never in history has any country been able to return to its democratic way of life after it started down the road of socialism," Dallas Truett, plant sales manager, Corkran-Hill and Co., Baltimore, declared at a meeting of the Gettysburg Lions club Monday evening at the Shetter House.

Mr. Truett gave a brief history of the Freedom Forum which was held first at Harding college in 1949 and which has met yearly since.

The objectives of that forum are:

To identify encroaching socialism, to point out the superiority of the American way of life, to understand and to preserve the American way of life, he said.

No Working Model

"Many forms of government have fallen as a direct result of socialism," stated Mr. Truett. "Our problem is to continue to improve our free enterprise system so that its benefits spread throughout the world."

Using examples of countries which have failed to survive, Mr. Truett said, "Where is the working model of socialism to follow? The truth is there is no model anywhere."

Dell, police said, was making a right turn off the highway to the Shetter roadside restaurant and was struck by the Long car. No one was injured. Damage to each car was estimated at $50.

BRITISH PEER GETS DUCKING

London, March 25 (P)—A British peer tried to walk across the Thames today the way the Romans used to do. He wound up swimming, but finished the trip in 17 minutes.

Lord Noel-Buxton, 35-year-old poet, politician and bird-watcher, emerged from the river at the north end of Westminster bridge and explained to reporters: "There was much more water than I expected. Of course, it has been raining."

Noel-Buxton undertook the walk as part of his research for a forthcoming book on the topography of London. He wanted to confirm a theory that the early Roman conquerors of the British Isles used to ford the Thames at Westminster.

The young peer is six feet three inches tall. According to his figures the river at ebb tide would be five feet three inches deep at the site of the Old Ford.

A cheer went up from hundreds lining Westminster bridge as Noel-Buxton donned his raincoat and sports jacket to his wife and entered the water from the south bank this morning.

He had walked about 30 yards when suddenly he vanished beneath the surface. He popped up again amid a fresh burst of cheers, doing what looked like a fair Australian crawl. For the rest of the 270-yard crossing he rarely touched bottom.

The drawing for the evening was won by Mrs. C. Arthur Brane. The games committee included Mrs. Samuel Palmer and Mrs. Anna Rose.

The next meeting will be held April 14 with Mrs. Henry Dickett and Mrs. Beaver acting as hostesses. The games committee will include Mrs. Fridinger and Mrs. Brane. Mrs. Howard Hartzell will present an Easter program.

TWO LOST TOTS PERISH IN COLD

Oconto Falls, Wis., March 25 (P)—The sole survivor of a trio of children lost in a forest wilderness over the weekend today was recovering from the harrowing experience.

Four-year-old Mary Ann Church, whose sister and cousin perished of exposure before rescuers found them yesterday at an abandoned summer resort, ate her breakfast contentedly in the hospital here this morning.

Meanwhile, relatives planned a double funeral Thursday afternoon for Mary Ann's sister, Kathy, and her cousin, Steven Kennedy, both five years old, following services at the community Bible church at Mountain, Wis. The youngsters will be buried side-by-side in the town cemetery.

The thinly-clad children wandered into Nicolet forest Saturday afternoon chasing a porcupine, became lost in a heavy snowstorm. The temperature was below freezing. Kathy and Steven were found dead yesterday in an outbuilding of a boarded-up summer resort one mile southwest of their home. Mary Ann was seated in the sun on the front steps of the hotel.

Whether Mary Ann will lose portions of her frozen feet was undetermined today. Hospital officials said she slept well last night and told them today that she had a tingling feeling in her toes. She declined milk when she was brought to a physician's office yesterday, asked instead for a cup of coffee.

The King's Daughters class of Bethlehem Lutheran Sunday school, Eendersville, will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Routsong with Miss Bessie Sheely as the co-hostess.

BRITISH PEER GETS DUCKING

London, March 25 (P)—A British peer tried to walk across the Thames today the way the Romans used to do. He wound up swimming, but finished the trip in 17 minutes.

Lord Noel-Buxton, 35-year-old poet, politician and bird-watcher, emerged from the river at the north end of Westminster bridge and explained to reporters: "There was much more water than I expected. Of course, it has been raining."

Noel-Buxton undertook the walk as part of his research for a forthcoming book on the topography of London. He wanted to confirm a theory that the early Roman conquerors of the British Isles used to ford the Thames at Westminster.

The young peer is six feet three inches tall. According to his figures the river at ebb tide would be five feet three inches deep at the site of the Old Ford.

A cheer went up from hundreds lining Westminster bridge as Noel-Buxton handed his raincoat and sports jacket to his wife and entered the water from the south bank this morning.

He had walked about 30 yards when suddenly he vanished beneath the surface. He popped up again amid a fresh burst of cheers, doing what looked like a fair Australian crawl. For the rest of the 270-yard crossing he rarely touched bottom.

The drawing for the evening was won by Mrs. C. Arthur Brame. The games committee included Mrs. Samuel Palmer and Mrs. Anna Rose.

Baseball Training Camp Briefs

Phoenix, Ariz., March 21 (P)—New York Giant Manager Leo Durocher today issued his first public statement on who will play second base for the National League champions. "Davey Williams will open and there's nobody even close to him," said the skipper.

Williams hasn't been hitting so far, and is not regarded as a top man at the plate, but this shortcoming apparently isn't bothering Durocher.

San Bernardino, Calif., March 21 (P)—Manager Billy Meyer of the Pittsburgh Pirates hinted today that six or seven of his teen-aged farmhands will likely stick with the parent club.

Shortstop Ted Kazanski, for whom the Phillies outbid every other major league club, says he wants to be a "great major leaguer because my parents talked me into playing baseball and I want to fulfill their dream for me."

Pitcher Dick Casagrande, former Fordham university sensation, says he'd like to show major league batters a sample of his pitching because "I had a taste of major league life and I like the hotels and the food up there."

Both boys are expected to be only a step away from the majors this season while play with the Baltimore Orioles.

ILLINOIS AND KANSAS RATED HIGH TONIGHT

By JACK HEWINS

Seattle, March 25 (P)—The tall men from the Illinois tall corn country and the Lovellette-led powerhouse from Kansas are rated as heavy favorites to survive tonight's semifinals of the NCAA basketball championships.

But St. John's university's Redmen from Brooklyn, who twisted the tail of the Kentucky Wildcat in the regional playoffs, were quietly present and not conceding a thing. They'll tangle with the Fighting Illini in the opener at 10:30 p.m. EST.

Two hours later Santa Clara—ever more the underdog than St. John's—will try to take the measure of the Kansans. Those Jayhawks measure pretty big, especially center Clyde Lovellette. At 6 feet 9 he's the largest thing in or out of the tournament.

Coach Bobby Peerick of the lightly regarded but frisky Santa Clara Broncos, had but this brief prediction for the press:

"We'll show up."

Frank McGuire of St. John's was just as cautious. He said that before his team met Kentucky Saturday night in Raleigh, N. C., he "had a feeling something would happen." Whether he still had the feeling or not he wouldn't say.

Both Harry Combes of Illinois and Dr. F. C. "Phog" Allen of Kansas were reluctant to say anything that might indicate they expected to trounce the underdog teams. Allen put it for both when he said "I know we're meeting an inspired club. I hope we're ready."

He was careful Monday that no prying eyes should see just how ready his Jayhawks were. The team which won 26 and lost only two up to now took a secret drill in the University of Washington pavilion. Allen stationed guards at all entrances.

The other teams also took short workouts—but with little secrecy—on the court which will rock tonight and Wednesday with the whoops of 11,200 fans. The big pavilion is a sellout for both the semifinals and the climax session and will be televised locally.

The opener will be regarded as the title game for eastern U. S. teams and the nightcap as the western crown struggle. The losers will open Wednesday night's action in the consolation finals and the winners will be shooting for the national championship.

Both winners the first night will earn berths in the National Olympic trials to be played in Kansas City and in New York.

Severe Blow

Their acquisition by Brick Laws' club even for part of the season is a severe blow to the seven other Coast league teams and especially to the eighth-place San Francisco Seals just across the bay.

Better Than Last Year

"I'm just praying that they ride Branca the first time he pitches against 'em," Chuck said. "Ralphie is just itching to get another crack at 'em. I'd like to have Branca pitch to 'Bobby' Thomson again. He'd pitch him the same way."

Dressen was bursting with optimism as he discussed his team's pennant chances for 1952.

The Acorns, now managed by the old Polo Grounds immortal, Mc Ott, were high among the favored Coast clubs even before President Horace Stoneham of the Giants got together with his buddy, Brick, the other evening and said here, pal, have yourself a pennant.

Up to a few seasons ago the Giants were extremely thick with the San Francisco club, and the Seals won flags in gross lots. Then came a falling-out between Stoneham and owner Paul Fagan of the Seals, and the latter suddenly found himself bereft of big league support.

Fagan has had a very sick ball club ever since.

Remember Jim Marshall

Where were we? Oh, yes, the Acorns of the Coast league, which has a new "open" classification this season and is not, as we understand it, supposed to countenance working agreements with big league teams which would draw away its best young talent—the Acorns are given

Gilbert, who could play regular first base on better than half the major league outfits, and Rufer, who stole 54 bases for Minneapolis last year.

How did those Acorns ever swing it, for all Laws' charming personality?

The only answer we can think of quickly is that the Acorns have in their possession a young fellow named Jim Marshall, a first baseman for the time being, who is by all accounts the greatest prospect around here in years.

Nothing might come of it. The kid might not develop. He might never play a game in the Polo Grounds,

San Francisco, March 25 (P)—The most significant baseball item of the week-end, which might have been widely overlooked in the crush of horse racing and basketball, was the announcement from here that the New York Giants were sending first-baseman Tooke Gilbert and shortstop Rudy Rufer to Oakland on option.

At the risk of being accused of expressing an opinion, we will say that this means the Coast league is starting out to learn to stand on its own feet by first lying down and rolling over.

Both Gilbert, one of the most promising youngsters in the National league, and Rufer, a great fielder, will join the Acorns next week subject to recall to the parent club as quickly as a plane can get across the country.

CLASS B TEAMS PLAY REGIONAL FINALS TONIGHT

By BEN FRENCH

Harrisburg, March 25 (AP) — Unaten Avalon and defending champion Kutztown defend their PIAA Class B regional titles tonight.

"Davey Williams will open and there's nobody even close to him," said the skipper.

Williams hasn't been hitting so far, and is not regarded as a top man at the plate, but this shortcoming apparently isn't bothering Durocher.

San Bernardino, Calif., March 21 (AP) — Manager Billy Meyer of the Pittsburgh Pirates hinted today that six or seven of his teen-aged farmhands will likely stick with the parent club.

Best bets to stay are outfielder Dobby Del Greco, first baseman Dick Hall and pitchers Ronnie Necciai, Jimmy Waugh, Eddie Wolfe and Ronnie Kline.

Clearwater, Fla., March 25 (AP) — Two bonus beauties of the Philadelphia Phillies are determined to have long major league careers, but for different reasons.

Shortstop Ted Kazanski, for whom the Phillies outbid every other major league club, says he wants to be a "great major leaguer because my parents talked me into playing baseball and I want to fulfill their dream for me."

Pitcher Dick Casagrande, former Fordham University sensation, says he'd like to show major league batters a sample of his pitching because "I had a taste of major league life and I like the hotels and the food up there."

Both boys are expected to be only a step away from the majors this season while play with the Baltimore Orioles.

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 25 (AP) — Philadelphia Athletics right-hander Dick Fowler thought he would possibly get vacation while having his pitching arm worked on in effort to cure an attack of buritis.

But no such luck. Despite the fact he hasn't pitched in nearly ten days and won't see action for at least another week, Fowler is still resting during the final quarters.

Kutztown has a well-schooled defense, coached by John Silan as well as the confidence of defending champions to cope with the assiduous Mr. Handzelek.

The Cougars showed they are still championship calibre Friday night when they edged a powerful Darby team, 34-32. Darby had beaten Radnor and Lansdowne to in the section 2 title of the Philadelphia Suburban league.

Shickshinny eliminated Montrose District 12, 77-60, and Wellsville District 4, 55-44, to reach the eastern finals while Kutztown knocked out a good Nesquehoning team from District 11, 65-44, before ending Darby.

Kutztown will send 6 feet 5 center Ed Hauck and Captain Pete Barto to the Shickshinny star. Both are old-timers from the past two championship teams.

Avalon Stars

Coach Harry Dennison has a terrific one-two punch at Avalon in 6 set 3 Ronnie Mayer, a little All-state selection last year, and 6 feet center Dan Tobin. Together, they scored nearly 1,000 points in leading the Panthers through the PIAA eliminations.

Avalon eliminated Gallitzin of District 6, 64-26, and Shade Township of District 5, 65-29. Slippery Rock defeated Cranberry of District 9, 69-65, after winning the Butler County and District 9 titles.

Meanwhile, the four remaining Class A contenders took their final workouts today in preparation for tomorrow's regional finals.

Catasauqua (23-3) meets Coatesville (22-3) at Hershey in the East while Farrell (27-1) takes on Pittsburgh Westinghouse (18-4) at Pittsburgh. The Class A title game is ataturday at Philadelphia's Palestra.

Philadelphia, March 25 (AP) — Paul Rizzo, former Villanova college basketball All-America choice and new scoring champion of the National professional basketball association, was to receive an induction examination at his draft board today.

The Illinois State Athletic commission asked Palermo to show cause why his Illinois manager's and seconds' license should not be revoked.

DODGERS OUT TO BEAT GIANTS IN PENNANT RACE

By JOE REICHLER

Miami, Fla., March 25 (AP) — I hope the Giants holler at us when we play 'em. Oh, how I wish they'd ride us. That'll only get us madder.

"I hear the Giants have been joking about us all winter. Whenever somebody would mention the Dodgers, they'd laugh. I hope they do some laughing to our faces. We'll give 'em something to laugh about, all right."

Gettysburg, Pa., March 25, 1952

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Local Miscellany: Edward Gowen, for a number of years sexton of St. Francis Xavier church, has resigned and will be succeeded by Edward Crotty, brother of Father Crotty.

Andrew Ramer has disposed of the good will and fixtures of Hotel Columbia, McSherrystown, to Lewis Eline. We understand that Mr. Ramer has purchased the baking business from his brother, Jacob, of this place, and will take charge of same about April 1st.

A number of our citizens have been making garden the past few days.

Jacob Mundorff will start a livery in this place in the near future.

New chairs have been placed in the Sunday school room of the Reformed church, C. S. Mumper furnished the same.

James Bumbaugh has purchased the restaurant equipment and good will from his son, Samuel J., and will continue the business at the old stand, Chambersburg street.

The Furniture Factory Subscription: The work of taking up this subscription is progressing—$1,300 having been subscribed, leaving $700 yet to be raised. This must be done during the present week, otherwise the industry will go elsewhere. It is hoped our people will not miss this opportunity to give all the year round employment to from 25 to 50 men.

Pleasant Gathering: Many of the more prominent members of the Memorial and Salem U.B. churches met at the parsonage on Saturday evening bringing tangible evidence of their good will toward their pastor of the past year, Rev. L. C. Smiley, and his family. With a table loaded with good things and a good social time together the evening was one enjoyed by all present.

Keystone Company Reorganized: On Tuesday last the Keystone Electric Light, Heat and Power Company was reorganized. A meeting was held in this place at which the resignation of O. F. Benner as president, and W. C. Sheely, Wm. McSherry, Adam Erter and Franklin Steiner, directors, were tendered and accepted. The directors of the new company as elected are: Jared Darlington, of Glen Mills, Del. Co., Pat. Henry A. Sage, of Easton; C. A. Bragg, Philadelphia; and Hon. William Arch McLean, of this place. The reorganization was effected by electing Mr. Darlington, President, and Wm. Arch McLean, Secretary.

We are reliably informed that the present machinery will be greatly improved and that some new machinery will likely be placed, so that our citizens may expect better lights in the near future.

The Cigar Factory: Applications for work in this proposed factory are being made, the required number has not yet been reached; there must be at least 100 applications. Applications will be received at office of Martin Winter for one week longer. Boys and girls over 16 years of age can make application to learn the trade.

A Warm Meeting: The meeting of the Democratic County Committee on Saturday resembled that of a race meet rather than a gathering of politicians. It was a battle royal between the S-trummers and anti-S-trummers, which resulted in a victory for Fighting Peter. As usual the star performers in the drama were Mrs. Butt and Strubinger. William P. Devine received 40-2 votes to Mr. Dulcane's 34, for chairman.

The committee on Resolutions: P. H. Strubinger, John F. Miller, C. H. Rector, W. D. Nederick and G. P. Smith...

Adams county representatives to State convention were voted for. Results—T. O. Collins, G. W. Smith, T. P. Day and G. W. Topper.

DONT CURTAIN YOUR

One reason why so many of us get into moods of unhappiness is because we curtain our memories. A dark day appears and we forget all about the beautiful day that preceded it! It's our happy memories that season our entire lives.

I now look out upon bare trees but it was not so long ago that each was a mass of shade, later in autumn turning to a riot of color and beauty. And soon again the process will start all over. Even the memory of our loved and lost keeps our heart in tune with the Infinite Mind.

We receive nothing but from what we have given. From the memory of our kindnesses and good deeds flows an ebb tide that is ever-recurring. As W. H. Hudson has so beautifully written: "When the rain clouds disperse and the sun shines once more, heaven and earth are filled with a chastened light sweet to behold and very wonderful, so because of our lost ones, because of the old grief at their loss, the visible world is touched with a new light, a tenderness and grace and beauty not its own."

Keep the shades before your memories forever open to the light! Lose nothing of their joy and remembered beauty. Words linger in the mind, and acts of goodness and mercy never die through the influence that they bear over the years. Many and many a voice later rings out to call such a creator blessed.

The late John Buchan (Lord Tweedsmuir) wrote his autobiography, and he called it "Memory Hold The Door." He wrote that his life story was "rebuilt out of memory." He also said that "the abiding things lie in the past." Yes, they lie in the past, but they keep creeping into the future, enriching it, and sparkling it with lessons learned and well worth re-learning!

Don't curtain your memories. Feed upon them for so long as you live. They are as immortal as truth.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Keep Doing Something Different."

MURRAY BLASTS WILSON; WON'T MEET AND TALK

Washington, March 25 (AP)—CIO President Philip Murray today blasted Defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson as a "biased and uninformed" big businessman and refused to meet with him on the crucial steel dispute.

Wilson, flying back from talks President Truman at Key West, Fla., had charted new steel wage-price peace negotiations in apparent hopes of avoiding boosts which Wilson plainly felt might wreck the entire economic controls program.

Murray's tart refusal to meet with Wilson, even before the mobilization chief got around to sending out invitations, seemed to doom any such negotiations before they started.

"Serious Threat"

Wilson told reporters who met him at the airport last night that proposals made last week by the Wage Stabilization Board (WSB) for settling the labor issues posed "a serious threat" to the administration's efforts to stabilize the economy.

The steel industry says it will have to raise its prices up to $12 a ton to pay for wage increases recommended by WSB for Murray's union.

One source close to the steel industry said Wilson was thinking of advising President Truman to end all wage-price controls entirely, but Wilson's aides said that action is not being considered seriously.

Angered By Statement

Wilson's comment that the WSB's recommendations for a 17½-cent hourly pay boost and other benefits for Murray's CIO steelworkers would threaten the economic stabilization program stung Murray into making a hot reply.

"It is clear," Murray's statement said, "that no constructive purpose can be served by attendance at a meeting with Mr. Wilson at which—in accordance with his prior, biased and uninformed judgment of the issues—he will attempt to set aside the findings of the wage board in favor of an industry-dictated arrangement.

"Accordingly, the United Steelworkers will attend no such meeting with Mr. Wilson."

Hospital spokesman said the Middlebury, Pa., soldier "is getting along fine" but that the surgery made it temporarily impossible for him to practice using his two mechanical legs. It had been thought for a time that he might be able to go home around April 1.

Washington, March 25 (AP)—Minor surgery that interrupted his walking lessons has delayed by a month to six weeks the departure from Walter Reed hospital of Capt. Robert L. Smith, the first quadruple amputee of the Korean war.

The Americans are not sitting in, but are watching closely from the wings. The U. S. government already has endorsed the proposal, in principle, as a step toward breaking down trade barriers. The Americans just don't want to see any more barriers thrown up.

French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman has proposed that the West European nations create a single market for their farm products—free of quota and tariff barriers.

One reason why so many of us get into moods of unhappiness is because we curtain our memories. A dark day appears and we forget all about the beautiful day that preceded it! It's our happy memories that season our entire lives.

I now look out upon bare trees but it was not so long ago that each was a mass of shade, later in autumn turning to a riot of color and beauty. And soon again the process will start all over. Even the memory of our loved and lost keeps our heart in tune with the Infinite Mind.

Truman's Friend Is Free During Appeal

St. Louis, March 25 (AP)—James P. Finnegan, former Internal Revenue collector, is free under $5,000 appeal bond today after receiving a two-year prison sentence and a $10,000 fine for misconduct in office. Attorneys of Finnegan, a personal friend of President Truman, said the appeal will be filed within 10 days.

His appeal isn't expected to be heard before the October term of the U. S. Court of Appeals and it may take several months longer before a decision is given.

U. S. District Judge Rubey M. Hulen, in passing sentence yesterday, described the 51-year-old Finnegan as a public official who sacrificed his honor for "a dirty mess of dollars."

Naturally the women scribes were interested in the new kitchen—all ultra-modern stainless steel and glass. But several reporters, average-sized women, tested out the overhead pot rack and found it hard to reach.

Otherwise this kitchen, designed by men to be used by women, is superb.

Glass Cabinets

Painted a cool gray, it will be very easy to keep clean. The cabinets, which line the walls, are glass fused onto metal. A wisk of a sponge and they'll be spotless. The stoves are electric, with broilers in tiers.

Out of this kitchen will come courses, sent by dumb waiter at roof top, for state dinners of at least 100 guests.

The room in which the women reporters lingered—in fact, several were willing to end the tour there—was the new solarium on the top floor. Octagonal, it has a huge picture window overlooking the Washington monument and the Lincoln Memorial.

As they met, American officials worried that the plan—French proposed agricultural counterpart to the Schuman pool of coal and steel—might be used to shelter European farms from the competition of others, particularly Americans.

Any suggestion of this would be welcome to arouse the ire of congressmen from America's farm belt, major concern of U. S. officials now that the Truman administration's whooping foreign aid program is before Congress for approval.

CALL IN GUARD ARMS FOR ARMY

Washington, March 25 (P)—Army units in this country—including the national guard and the reserves—must turn in thousands of tanks and other vehicles to meet U. S. priority shipments to the Allied buildup overseas.

The army disclosed the equipment levy after Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther told the Senate Foreign Relations committee yesterday that priorities drawn up at Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters already are guiding the allocation of equipment by the U. S. military services.

The army is carrying the burden imposed by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) decision to equip 50 combat ready divisions in Western Europe by the end of this year.

Paul M. Randall, Lumber street, attended a Masonic banquet in Trenton, N. J., on Saturday evening and spent the remainder of the week-end in New York city.

Mrs. William Riordan and daughter, Jeann, East King street, visited with relatives and friends in Frederick during the week-end.

PIG FARMER IS NEW CANDIDATE

New York, March 25 (P)—A 40-year-old New Jersey pig farmer, who thinks "it's a shame the way this country is being run," has launched his campaign to become the "poor man's candidate for president."

After opening his campaign last night at the Roseland ballroom, the candidate, Henry Krajewski of Secaucus, announced that his running mate would be Frank Jenkins of Rahway.

Krajewski owns a five-acre farm, 4,000 pigs and a tavern in Secaucus known as "Tammany Hall."

A batch of his Secaucus friends, wearing a varied assortment of outfit ranging from Indian costumes to evening clothes, staged a demonstration on Broadway outside the dance hall. Signs bearing Krajewski's slogans—such as "No taxes in 1952"—were carried by the pig farmer's pals.

The turn-in order applies to all army units in this country, the army said, including the organized reserve and the national guard.

The marine corps, which uses much the same heavy equipment as the army, also will contribute military vehicles. Neither the navy nor the air force is expected to take any equipment from their active or reserve units to meet the stepped-up priority shipments.

Los Angeles, March 25 (P)—A despondent mother, clutching her six-year-old son in her arms, leaped from the roof of a seven-story hotel here yesterday.

Mrs. Terry Chuart, 30, died immediately. Little John, who was crying feebly when ambulance drivers arrived, died two hours later.

A note to the husband and father, read:

"I've reached the point of no return, honey—you've been a wonderful husband and father. Am taking J. B. with me to spare him the disgrace. I'm just inadequate."

Arkansas Counts
Huge Storm Loss

Little Rock, Ark., March 25 (P)—Arkansas totaled up a 25 million dollar damage bill from black Friday's vicious tornadoes as the living began the task of rebuilding.

Gov. Sid McMath said last night that a survey of the state indicated that damage would approach the $25 million dollar mark.

Richard Maize, secretary of mines, said this represents the state's share of a joint state-government agreement to finance the cost of extinguishing the fire. The government will spend $80,000 on the project. Federal mine officials will supervise the work.

Arkansas was the hardest hit of southern states by the tornadoes, storms and floods, which took 23 lives, injured 1,100 and left thousands without shelter.

In Arkansas alone, 129 persons were killed; 711 injured and 1,361 homes were destroyed or damaged.

Relief operations, directed by Red Cross and Salvation Army workers, rapidly brought a semblance of order to the chaos.

The U. S. Children's Bureau is under the Department of Labor.

UNLIKELY THAT "IKE" WILL BE INVITED HOME

Washington, March 25 (AP) — A once-rejected proposal that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower be invited home to testify on the administration's foreign aid program appeared beyond revival today in the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

The proposal by Sen. McMahon (D-Conn.) lost one supporter and two others who had favored the idea seemed only lukewarm about it after Eisenhower's chief of staff, Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, appeared before the committee in support of the program yesterday.

Sen. Gillette (D-Iowa), who voted a week ago for inviting Eisenhower to testify, told a reporter:

"I think now we won't need him. Gruenther's knowledge of the European defense program is so comprehensive that testimony by Eisenhower would be just cumulative. I still say, however, that Eisenhower will be welcome if he wants to come."

Denied Politics

Senators Wiley (R-Wis.) and Green (R-R.I.), who also voted to invite Eisenhower, indicated they were satisfied with the information Gruenther provided and would not press for another vote.

On March 17 the committee rejected, 7 to 5, the proposal to have Eisenhower testify if he cared to. Then it unanimously reconsidered the vote, in effect shelving the issue until after Gruenther had testified.

Most of those who voted against the proposal said they were against piano, Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, inviting Eisenhower because of the political implications — his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination.

McMahon, whose original suggestion that Eisenhower be summoned home from Paris was revised to put it on an invitation basis, denied that politics was involved in his proposal. McMahon said he feels Eisenhower knows more about the European defense program than anyone else, and that Congress should have his views first-hand.

Seek Vandals Who Cut TV Tower Cables

Pine Grove, Pa., March 25 (AP) — A $100 reward has been offered for information leading to the arrest of the vandals who cut supporting cables holding up Pine Grove's community television tower.

Dr. Sidney Melnicove, head of a firm which owns the tower, announced the reward yesterday.

The tower, which fell at a loss of $1,000, served Pine Grove television set owners by means of wire lines for a monthly fee. It was situated on a hilltop of this eastern Pennsylvania community.

Such tower installations are frequent in communities where hills virtually block off normal rooftop antennas.

New York, March 25 (AP) — A year ago, friends were wondering, if Arturo Toscanini would ever conduct again. Today, on his 85th birthday, they're confident he'll be doing so for some time.

The world-renowned maestro observed the occasion at home with his children and grandchildren. He was expected to take time out from reading the hundreds of congratulatory messages to run through, on the proposal said they were against piano, Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, inviting Eisenhower because of the political implications — his candi-

UNLIKELY THAT "IKE" WILL BE INVITED HOME

Washington, March 25 (P) — A once-rejected proposal that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower be invited home to testify on the administration's foreign aid program appeared beyond revival today in the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

The proposal by Sen. McMahon (D-Conn.) lost one supporter and two others who had favored the idea seemed only lukewarm about it after Eisenhower's chief of staff, Gen. Alfred M. Gruenthal, appeared before the committee in support of the program yesterday.

Sen. Gillette (D-Iowa), who voted a week ago for inviting Eisenhower to testify, told a reporter:

"I think now we won't need him. Gruenthal's knowledge of the European defense program is so comprehensive that testimony by Eisenhower would be just cumulative. I still say, however, that Eisenhower will be welcome if he wants to come."

Denied Politics

Senators Wiley (R-Wis.) and Green (R-L.) who also voted to invite Eisenhower, indicated they were satisfied with the information Gruenthal provided and would not press for another vote.

On March 17 the committee rejected, 7 to 5, the proposal to have Eisenhower testify if he cared to. Then it unanimously reconsidered the vote, in effect shelving the issue until after Gruenthal had testified.

Most of those who voted against the proposal said they were against inviting Eisenhower because of the political implications — his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination.

McMahon, whose original suggestion that Eisenhower be summoned from Paris was revised to put it on an invitation basis, denied that politics was involved in his proposal. McMahon said he feels Eisenhower knows more about the European defense program than anyone else, and that Congress should have his views first-hand.
